

31st Annual Provincial Training for Life Conference

On October 19th - 21st the Newfoundland and Labrador Council of St. John Ambulance hosted its 31st Annual Provincial Training for Life Conference in Gander at the Albatross Hotel. Each year we offer invaluable training to our instructors and community service volunteers from all areas of the province.

This year over 150 instructors and volunteers participated in workshops and educational sessions, featuring more than 20 established professionals in the field. The outstanding work of its Instructors, Volunteers and Community Supporters were recognized at the Annual Awards Banquet Saturday evening. In addition, St. John Ambulance was proud and honoured to have guest speaker Dr. David Thomas give an inspirational recount on how volunteering with St. John has impacted his life.

Below is a list of the 2007 awards and recipients

Outstanding Promotion to Occupational Health & Safety First Aid Training - City of St. John's Presented by Glenda Janes, C.E.O of St. John NL Council to Terry Burden, City of St. John's and Captain Jack Wood, St. John's Regional Fire Department

Outstanding Dedication to Occupational Health & Safety First Aid Training - Voisey's Bay Nickel Company Limited Presented by Dave Griffiths, Chair of St. John NL Council to Vice Chair James Carroll on behalf of Voisey's Bay Nickel Company Ltd.

Instructor of the Year - Paul Snow Presented by Dave Griffiths, Chair of St. John NL Council

Outstanding Community Support - St. John's Racing & Entertainment Centre Presented by Kimberly Greening, Manager of Community Services and Gerry Antle, Superintendent of Goulds Community Services Division to Brett Whalen

Excellence in Voluntary Service - Dr. David Thomas Proudly presented by Gerald Thomas, St. John Instructor

(More conference pictures below)

Thank you to our generous sponsors for help making our 31st conference a complete success!

