

ADMISSIONS/PROMOTIONS TO THE ORDER

The following individuals have been recognized by Her Excellency, the Governor General of Canada, and acknowledged by Her Majesty the Queen, Sovereign Head of the order of St. John, for their contribution to the goals and ideals of the order. They are about to be admitted or promoted within the order. St. John Ambulance Order admissions and promotions are the highest recognition which can be accorded to an individual by the Order of St. John for such work.

Promotion to The Dame of Grace - Mrs. Joyce Hart

The success of any organization is solely dependent upon the contribution of its members, and it is with great pleasure we take this opportunity to recognize the ongoing dedicated work of Mrs. Hart. Her exemplary efforts in all aspects of community services have contributed to the continued successes enjoyed by the organization. She has served with the organization for over 28 years, including membership on the Board of Directors for over 14 years, and has worked to encourage continued involvement of Order members through the Fellowship movement. Her ongoing commitment and dedication are duly recognized with a Promotion to Dame of Grace.

Promotion to the Grade of Officer - Mr. Donald Drover

In the past 17 years Mr. Drover has provided unwavering dedication to the Order and to the community in his numerous responsibilities with Community Services. Mr. Drover has shared his medical expertise as Nursing Officer with the order, as an Emergency Room nurse and most recently as a medic with the province's first Emergency Flight team. These invaluable contributions have assisted in enabling 321 Division to respond to more than 300 duties annually. In addition his efforts have helped obtain significant resources for to help serve the community including a Multipurpose Event Unit, Automatic External Defibrillators and a Bicycle Patrol Unit. These selfless commitments are recognized with promotion to Officer of the Order.

Promotion to the Grade of Officer - Mr. Dave Griffiths

Dave Griffiths has been an invaluable leader in his community and within St. John Ambulance. Since his admission to The Order, he has taken on numerous roles, including Chairman of the Newfoundland & Labrador Council Board of Directors, member of the Centennial Committee, as well as the Provincial Governance Committee. As Council Chairman, Dave emphasized volunteer recognition through his frequent visits to divisions all throughout the province. Dave lives his commitment to the Motto of the Order in the Service of Mankind everyday through his actions at all levels of the organization and is deserving of promotion in the Order.
