ST. JOHN AMBULANCE EXHIBIT AT THE ROOMS – SUNDAY APRIL 11th, 2010

Thursday, April 8th, 2010 St. John Ambulance, in partnership with The Rooms, is hosting a reception and exhibit opening entitled “Reflections on History” on Sunday, April 11th, 2010. The exhibit will feature several St. John Ambulance archival pieces, including the original minutes of the first meeting, dated exactly 100 years ago on April 11th, 1910, as recorded by Dr. Cluny Macpherson.

On hand for the official transfer of the archives will be the Honorary Co-Chair's of St. John Ambulance's Centennial Year – Ian and Cluny Macpherson and Heather Morgan, grandchildren of Dr. Cluny Macpherson.

The official transfer of the archives from St. John Ambulance to The Rooms will take place at 6pm.

“Archival pieces including original Holloway photos, depicting Volunteer Aid Detachments (VAD's) who were trained and sent overseas to assist the sick and wounded during the first World War, will be featured” says Glenda Janes, CEO of St. John Ambulance, Newfoundland and Labrador Council. “It is a celebration by members of St John Ambulance in Newfoundland and Labrador of our ‘Century of Care’.”

The St. John Ambulance archival display will be available for public viewing at The Rooms until October 2010.

St. John Ambulance is focused on enabling Canadians to improve their health, safety and quality of life by providing training and community service.
