

Provincial Certificates of Commendation

The following individuals or groups of individuals have assisted casualties, with or without the application of first aid, and are deserving of a Certificate of Commendation for their honourable actions.

Mr. Charles Borg

On November 12th, 2008, while attending Prince of Wales Collegiate in St. John's, Mr. Borg came to the aid of a fellow student who had seriously injured himself, resulting in severe bleeding to his hand and arm. Mr. Borg immediately took charge of the scene, using material readily available he wrapped the student's hand and arm and applied pressure to stem the bleeding. He then escorted the injured student to the administrative offices, where he contacted Emergency Health Services and requested an ambulance using his cell phone. Mr. Borg's quick and decisive actions and professional demeanour throughout the incident are hereby recognized with a Provincial Certificate of Commendation.