

The Dr. Cluney Macpherson Centennial Award

On the occasion of the 100th Anniversary of St. John Ambulance in Newfoundland and Labrador, the following individuals and organizations are being recognized for their long term support and sustained loyalty to the organization in this province:

Salvation Army

Lt.-Col. Alfred Richardson

In recognition of provision of counseling and support for volunteers who have encountered traumatic events as part of their response duties, providing them with strength and courage to continue to respond to major incidents.

College of the North Atlantic

Ms. Corinne Dunne

In recognition for the active and ongoing support for over 2 decades through the provision of St. John Ambulance First Aid courses on campus. The College of the North Atlantic is recognized as having the most extensive post-secondary educational facilities in the province. Through their generous support Newfoundlanders and Labradorians have been able to avail of first aid courses in their local communities.

Health Emergency Management Division – Department of Health

Mr. Dennis Davis

Health Emergency Management Division have supported St. John volunteers as partners in the training and deployment of the National Emergency Stock Pile System (NESS) in three regions of the province. With the guidance of this Department and the leadership of Mr. Davis, St. John has been a partner in preparing to respond during pandemic health emergency situations and all disaster responses requiring supplemental health resources.

Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro

Mrs. Cathy Bradbury

In recognition of ongoing sponsorship, especially during our Centennial, of the goals and activities of St. John Ambulance, and for outstanding promotion of safety in the workplace. Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro employees have been recognized for their quality and commitment in the delivery of St. John First Aid Courses within their workplace.

Hi-Tech Communications

Mr. Paul Greene

In recognition of support to Brigade operations and emergency response through the upgrading of communications equipment and capability. Mr. Greene has acted as liaison between SJA and other parties involved in communications for St. John during event duties and emergency response.

VOCM

Mr. Dennis Dillon

In recognition of continuous promotion of St. John Ambulance and its service to the public through various initiatives such as in kind sponsorship, support to our Communications Committee and the provision of guidance and advice in the promotion of awareness of safety training available to the citizens of Newfoundland and Labrador. Their support has been particularly valuable during our Centennial Year.

The Rooms

Mr. Dean Brinton

In recognition of in kind sponsorship through the preservation of historical artifacts documenting the 100 years of St. John Ambulance in Newfoundland and Labrador. Their provision of guidance and expertise in managing the considerable array of archival items has been key to the success of allowing the public to view these items as a collection for the first time in our history.