

St. John Ambulance

SAVING LIVES
at work, home and play

Who We Are

As Canada's leading first aid and safety charity, St. John Ambulance is dedicated to enabling people's health, safety, and quality of life through training and community service. Building on a 900-year tradition, St. John Ambulance provides first aid, CPR, and safety training and products, where proceeds also help fund several charitable community programs. St. John Ambulance British Columbia and Yukon strives to be the National leader on technology upgrades, providing community services, and create a dynamic working environment to attract talented employees.

General

Our British Columbia and Yukon headquarters are seeking a qualified General and/or OFA First Aid Instructor to work on a full-time basis based in our Terrace Branch.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Instruct General/OFA First Aid Courses on a weekly rotational basis – schedule to be determined in consultation with the Terrace Branch;
- Instruct other WorkSafeBC and St. John Ambulance Courses, as required;
- Evaluate St. John Ambulance OFA 2/3 exams
- Promote the sale of St. John Ambulance training courses and products;
- Travel to other areas to instruct courses;
- Maintain and clean first aid classrooms, equipment, and supplies; and
- Conduct mall displays/tradeshows, as required.

Qualifications and Skills

- High school diploma;
- Valid St. John Ambulance First Aid & CPR Instructor Certificate;
- Valid Occupational First Aid Instructor Certificate;
- Minimum of four years teaching experience;
- Monitor and Instructor Trainer certification is an asset;
- Professional image with excellent instructing and marketing and sales skills;
- Comfortable in using a computer (for example, PowerPoint) for course delivery and other related administrative tasks;
- Ability to travel out of town on short notice; and
- Ability to work independently and on occasional weekend/evening.

If you or someone you know is interested in this position, please email a resume and cover letter to bcy.hrteam@sja.ca.