ST. JOHN AMBULANCE CANADA
A PROUD TRADITION
OF SAVING LIVES

St. John Ambulance Canada is part of one of the world’s oldest humanitarian organizations—the Order of St. John, a worldwide, non-denominational charity dedicated to the service of others for more than 900 years.

Established in Canada in 1883, St. John Ambulance Canada today has 25,000 volunteers that keep Canadians safe in communities from coast-to-coast.
Supporting Canadian Communities

A fundamental focus of St. John Ambulance Canada is community service. Coast-to-coast, more than 12,000 front-line volunteers serve communities by providing first aid services at events and during emergencies. St. John Ambulance volunteers also improve quality of life through programs that help seniors, the disadvantaged and youth.

Teaching Skills That Save Lives at Work, Home and Play

St. John Ambulance is considered Canada’s gold standard of excellence in first aid and CPR training. More than 6,000 certified St. John instructors deliver critically acclaimed training courses from coast to coast. Each year more than 550,000 Canadians receive first aid and CPR training from St. John Ambulance.
