

The Edgar L. Boyd Award
For Excellence in Voluntary Service

Celebrating excellence

St. John Ambulance Alberta Council

The Edgar L. Boyd Award for Excellence in Voluntary Service recognizes an outstanding St. John Ambulance volunteer for dedication and commitment to the values and principles of St. John, and for improving the health, safety and quality of everyday life in their community.

You are invited to nominate a St. John Community Services, Association or Fellowship volunteer who does not receive remuneration, or a Board volunteer who meets the criteria.

Criteria

- Nominees must be residents of Alberta, except in unusual circumstances, and approved by the Council Board of Directors: for example, when the nominee has moved, but performed the work while residing in Alberta.
- Nominees must have at least three years of voluntary service with the Council, with at least 500 hours of voluntary service per year.
- Nominees must be volunteers in good standing with the organization.

The Nomination

- Nominations must include a brief biographical history of the nominee (1 page).
- A resume or curriculum vitae, if available.
- A summary of the nominee's service with St. John in Alberta.

- A detailed narrative to support the nomination.
- Nominations and attachments must be typed.
- Complete the attached nomination form (included in brochure as an insert).

The Selection

All nominations are submitted to the Volunteer Development Committee of St. John Ambulance, Alberta Council, for review and selection. The recipient of the award and the nominator will be advised after the selection process is completed.

Presentation of Award

Every year, the St. John Ambulance Alberta Council celebrates outstanding achievement at the Order of St. John Banquet in the Spring. In addition to the Edgar L. Boyd Award for Excellence in Voluntary Service, the following awards will be presented at this gala event:

- The Chairman of the Board of Directors Award for Excellence in Work or Research in Health and Safety,
- The Dr. G.R.A. Rice Memorial Award for Excellence in Media Coverage, and
- The Lyle E. Sproat Award for Excellence in Teaching.
