

The Lyle E. Sproat Award
For Excellence in Teaching

Celebrating excellence

St. John Ambulance Saint-Jean

The Lyle E. Sproat Award honours individuals who have demonstrated excellence in instructing St. John Ambulance programs, enabling those they teach to improve their health, safety and quality of life.

You are invited to nominate an Instructor, an Instructor Trainer either in the Brigade or Association who demonstrate the highest quality of program delivery and professionalism in their teaching. The nominee must be an instructor in good standing and fit the profile outlined in the preceding paragraphs.

Criteria

- Nominees must be residents of Alberta, except in unusual circumstances approved by the Council Board of Directors: for example, when the nominee has moved out of province during the selection process or within four months of the qualifying year.
- Nominees must be certified within the qualifying year or during the selection process.
- Nominees must not deliver programs for competitive agencies.

The Nomination

- Nominations must include a brief biographical history of the nominee (1 page).
- A resume or curriculum vitae, if available.
- A summary of the nominee's service with St. John in Alberta.

- A detailed narrative to support the nomination.
- Nominations and attachments must be typed.
- Complete the attached nomination form (included in brochure as an insert).

The Selection

All nominations are submitted to the Volunteer Development Committee of St. John Ambulance, Alberta Council, for review and selection. The recipient of the award and the nominator will be advised after the selection process is completed.

Presentation of Award

Every year, the St. John Ambulance Alberta Council celebrates outstanding achievement at the Order of St. John Banquet in the Spring. In addition to Lyle E. Sproat Award for Excellence in Teaching, the following awards will be presented at this gala event:

- The Chairman of the Board of Directors Award for Excellence in Work or Research in Health and Safety,
- The Edgar L. Boyd Award for Excellence in Voluntary Service, and
- The Dr. G.R.A. Rice Memorial Award for Excellence in Media Coverage.
