

Vice Prior's Award

For Excellence in Service to the Order of St. John

Celebrating excellence

St. John Ambulance

The Vice-Prior's Award for Excellence in Service to the Order of St. John honours a Member of the Order for their contribution to Alberta Council and the Province of Alberta. This award was established by St. John Council for Alberta in 2004 and approved by the former Vice Prior of the Order for St. John in Alberta, the late Honourable Lois Hole.

You are invited to nominate a Member of The Order whose dedication and efforts have significantly enhanced Alberta Council's ability to achieve its mission: to enable Canadians to improve their health, safety and quality of life by providing training and community service.

Criteria

- Nominees must have demonstrated exemplary leadership, dedication and commitment in accordance with the Core Values of St. John Ambulance.
- Nominees must have at least 10 years of voluntary service with the Council and be a Member of The Order.
- The nominee's endeavors must have advanced the work of the Order for St. John in Alberta and enabled St. John Ambulance to further its mission and commitment to the citizens of Alberta.

- Nominees must be residents of Alberta, except in unusual circumstances which must be approved by the Council Board of Directors: for example, when the nominee has moved within the previous 12 month period, but had performed the work while residing in Alberta.

The Nomination

- Nominations must include a brief biographical history of the nominee (1 page).
- A resume or curriculum vitae, if available.
- A detailed narrative to support the nomination.
- Nominations and attachments must be typed.
- Complete the attached nomination form (included in brochure as an insert).

The Selection

All nominations are submitted to the Volunteer Development Committee of St. John Ambulance, Alberta Council, for review and selection. The recipient of the award and the nominator will be advised after the selection process is completed.

Presentation of Award

Every year, the St. John Ambulance Alberta Council celebrates outstanding achievement at the Order of St. John Banquet. In addition to The Vice Prior's Award for Excellence in Service to the Order of St. John, the following awards will be presented at this gala event:

- The Chairman of the Board of Directors Award for Excellence in Work or Research in Health and Safety,
- Edgar L. Boyd Award for Excellence in Voluntary Service
- The Lyle E. Sproat Award for Excellence in Teaching, and
- The Dr. G.R.A. Rice Memorial Award for Excellence in Media Coverage.
